

AHCA/NCAL In-Person Conference Update

AHCA/NCAL hoped it would be able to resume hosting its in-person May and June conferences this year without risking the spread of COVID-19. Unfortunately, the limited supply of vaccine, lack of information on the impact of vaccines on transmission and infection, plus pandemic-related government restrictions, have forced us to cancel our Spring CEO Conference and Quality Summit scheduled for May, and Congressional Briefing scheduled for June.

Bring Out the Best in Your Staff.

This practical resource takes long term care leaders through the critical steps of achieving staff stability, strengthening coordination of care, and maintaining the well-being of each resident. Complete with downloadable resources, A Long-Term Care Leader's Guide to High Performance demonstrates how engaging staff in continuous quality improvement produces consistently high-quality care. Whether care communities are excelling or struggling, leaders can benefit from these performance-improving practices. Filled with candid, impactful personal accounts about implementing quality improvement in nursing homes, this manual reveals ways in which leaders and their staff can do better, together.
